CBRE | Richmond Donates $70,000 to UDT-SEAL Association

Richmond, Va. – June 4, 2018 – CBRE | Richmond is pleased to announce that the $70,000 raised at the Second Annual CBRE | Richmond Outdoor Challenge held on March 26 & 27, 2018 at Conservation Park of Virginia has been donated to the UDT-SEAL Association.

“The UDT-SEAL Association is fortunate to have partnered with CBRE | Richmond to put on the 2nd Annual CBRE Outdoor Challenge. We could not find a more selfless partner who spent tireless hours preparing for and executing this two-day, logistically challenging event,” said Dave Morrison, Executive Director at the UDT-SEAL Association. “Great fun and camaraderie was had by all. It was an honor to gather Veteran SEALS from the Richmond Chapter and the UDT-SEAL Association Headquarters to assist at each station in this awesome event. We look forward to growing this event but more importantly this partnership with an organization that shares a common goal with us; “others before self”.”

The CBRE | Richmond Outdoor Challenge is a series of field sporting events for Richmond business leaders to socialize while benefitting a great cause over the course of two days. Events included five-stand, wobble, handgun, archery, and precision rifle courses. Approximately 115 participants attended the event over the two days.

“We have created a fundraiser to benefit the UDT-SEAL Association that is uniquely different from your typical client or networking event,” said Tom Vozenilek, executive vice president. “The CBRE|Richmond Outdoor Challenge gets people out of their offices, out of their comfort zones, and together for an amazing cause while spending time with retired SEALs.”

The CBRE|Richmond Outdoor Challenge will be held again in 2019. For more information on the event, visit www.richmondoutdoorchallenge.com. For more information about the UDT-SEAL Association, visit www.udtseal.org. Potential sponsors may contact Tom Vozenilek or Lyndsey Capps at 804-320-5500.
